

Eric Galbraith ACII – Chartered Insurance Practitioner
Chief Executive - BIBA

Eric's career spans many years in the broking industry working with Marsh, Royal Bank of Scotland and Aviva, joining BIBA in 2003. His strengths lie in leadership, strategic development and the ability to recognise develop and carry forward both customer and market facing initiatives. Eric has made significant changes within BIBA and instigated various initiatives to improve areas such representations and communications ensuring members interests are promoted and protected. At the end of 2007 Eric was recognised as Insurance Times' industry achiever of the year and in 2008 BIBA won sector representation of the year award.