

Peter Staddon – ACII ACMI – Chartered Insurance Broker
Head of Technical Services - BIBA

Peter began his insurance career in 1971 and has worked for a number of insurance brokers covering most general insurance disciplines. He joined BIBA in 1996 to establish, what is now a highly successful technical services department. He was responsible for raising key technical issues with the media – gaining significant broadcast and print coverage for leading insurance issues. Peter has played a significant role in some of the major issues of the day including Employers Liability and Terms of Business Agreements and he has developed ongoing relationships with various government departments.