

Steve White Cert CII

Head of Compliance and Training, BIBA

Steve has spent 30 years in the insurance industry, working for the Guardian Royal Exchange Group, the General Insurance Standards Council and the Financial Services Authority.

Steve joined BIBA in March 2004, bringing the experience, knowledge and enthusiasm which has significantly benefited both the organisation and its Members. He has a detailed understanding of the application of FSA rules to insurance intermediaries and is a source of informed opinion on regulatory and compliance issues. Steve sits on the Ministry of Justice's Claims Management Regulation - Regulatory Consultative Group.

Steve lives on the Kent coast, has two children and is an avid follower of Arsenal